

a summer to remember

I am

....fearless. Kelsey Stanley, 11, and Samantha Calvert, 10, courageously do handstands on top of penny boards, making the most of their summer vacation.

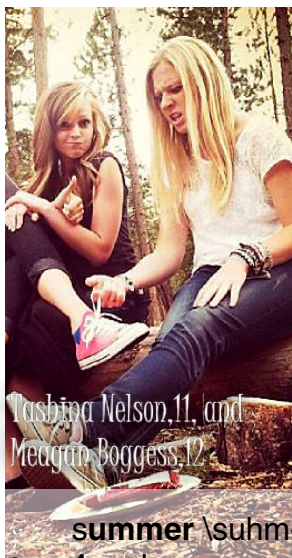

....a kid at heart. Over summer, Danielle Lozano, 12, visited the newest attraction at California Adventure, Cars Land, with her family.

....an athlete. Ashley Ross, 11, went to Canada with her softball team over summer. She even got to meet Keilani Ricketts and Jackie Traina from the USA olympic gold team.

in the great outdoors

Tashina Nelson, 11, and Meagan Boggess, 12

summer \suhm-er\ 11.

1. c. lozano

TRIM LINE

school clothes shopping

Making a good impression is very important. Cyrenna McClain, 9, bought a whole new wardrobe for her freshmen year. "My favorite store to shop at is a tie between Forever 21 and H&M"

Blast from the past. Sarah McLaughlin, 10, buys vintage sweaters from thrift stores around Vegas. She says, "Sweater weather is better weather."

working for your money

Jeremy Lee, 12, and Richard Koplow, 11

Jessica Hardy, 10

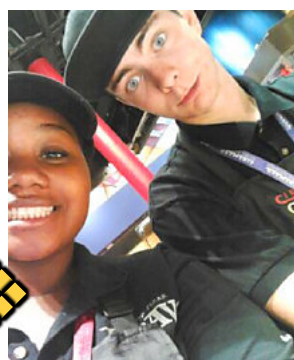

Jacqueline Martinez, 11

family hangouts

Jeremy Lee, 12, and Richard Koplow, 11, worked hard for their money being lifeguards during summer vacation.

Admit one. Summer jobs are important to many high school students, Reauzjanæ Stevenson, 12, and Bradley Bennett, 12, worked all summer long at the movie theater.

Stanley Crespo, 10

july \joo-lahy\ n. 1. camping, summer jobs, family hangouts

TRIM LINE

TRIM LINE

TRIM LINE

TRIM LINE