

BEACH sun SUMMER fun

Long summer days spent tanning and swimming, the smell of sunscreen filling the air it is the perfect respite from the school year. Rocklin is known to not have many fun activities during the summer for teens, but they just need to know where to look. If not right in Rocklin there are many things to do right outside the city limits.

admission.

With 68 exhilarating rides and 120 events every year the State Fair brings an environment of excitement to Cal Expo. It is a fun way to escape the stresses of everyday life and just enjoy the summer air with family and friends. The 2012 California State Fair goes on from July 12th to the 29th and at the reasonable price of just $12 for general on a budget.

A place to hang out with friends, soak up the sun, and have fun in the water, Folsom Lake is the perfect hangout for all ages since its' close and inexpensive. Having it be only $6 if you need to park and free if you don't it is a great place to go for teens the Craze Cafe. It is a great environment for all ages and the perfect escape from the hot summer sun.

Come and enjoy a two-story laser tag arena and arcade at the all new Laser Craze in Rocklin located next to Blue Oaks theater. This new entertainment center houses the largest laser tag arena in northern California. It also has over 30 arcade games, Bounce houses, and comfort of your own car and hear the movie over your radio so you can control the volume yourself. It is also much cheaper than the normal movie theaters, it is $7 every night besides Tuesdays when it is only $5. Bring some blankets and friends and get cozy under the stars.

Rather than going to the boring old movie theaters like everyone else why not throw some excitement into your life and take a trip back to the fifties at the Drive-In movie theater in Sacramento. The Drive-In movie theater allows you to be in the ride Double Dare. With over 10 thrilling water slides, Sunsplash is endless fun for everybody.

If you don't have a pool and you're looking for a way to cool down and have fun in the water go to Sunsplash. And this summer it is going to be better than ever with the opening of the new summer they host many fun events like bands, DJs, bowling competitions and much more. Come and enjoy the cool air and have fun at the same time.

Strikes is much more than just bowling. Have fun competing with your friends in a game of bowling then challenge them in a round in laser tag. The Strike's arcade provides 50 and more video games to play. Throughout the
