Students:

Thanks for your time and effort this year. Faced with deadlines and challenges, you stepped up, kept your audience in mind and created top-notch work.

Parents:

Both our broadcast and print students have experienced another successful year, winning numerous state and national awards while serving as the student voice of Carmel High School. They and their faculty advisers could not have accomplished such success without your assistance. Thank you for your understanding of before- and after-school and weekend work sessions, photo assignments and late-night phone calls for interviews. We appreciate your continued commitment and support.

May 2, 2013 • 6 to 7:30 p.m. • Studio Theater

Light refreshments are available before and after the awards presentation.
